

Foreign & Commonwealth
Office

31 July 2009

Freedom of Information Request

I am writing to you about your request for information addressed to the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) dated 4 April 2009 which is set out in full below:

“I am interested in UK government policy in Northern Ireland and would like to obtain one hard copy of the current concordat between the Northern Ireland Office and the Northern Ireland Executive. Please can you post this to me at the address above?”

If a concordat is not in place, please enclose any other document which outlines the formal relationship between your department and the Executive, and their respective responsibilities.”

I can confirm the information you seek is publically available from the Ministry of Justice website at:

<http://www.justice.gov.uk/guidance/docs/odpm-dev-600629.pdf>

However, in the interests of being helpful I have enclosed a copy here:

odpm-dev-600629.p
df

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office will have been produced by government officials and will be Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown Copyright on HMS Online at:

<http://www.hmso.gov.uk/copyright/licences/click-use-home.htm>

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Crown Copyright) information.