FOI REQUEST

Thank you for your email of 3 September 2009 requesting information relating to the World Chess Championship matches between Garry Kasparov and Anatolie Karpov which took place in London in July-August 1986.

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office has completed a search of its archive and I can confirm that we hold five documents which relate to your request. After reviewing these documents it was decided that we are able to release them to you (see attached). However, some of the names of officials have been removed as this was not relevant to your request.

You may re-use the Crown copyright protected material (not including the Royal Arms and other departmental or agency logos) free of charge in any format for non-commercial research, private study or internal circulation within your organisation. The material must be acknowledged as Crown copyright and you must give the title of the source document/publication.

For any other proposed use of the material please apply for a PSA Licence for core material from the Office of Public Sector Information:
